LEWIS C. FOX, White male, born October 23, 1943, Social Security Account Number [REDACTED], was interviewed at his residence, [REDACTED], telephone [REDACTED], at which time he was immediately advised of the identity of interviewers and the purpose of the interview. FOX provided the following information:

FOX retired from the Uniform Division of the U.S. Secret Service, White House Detail, on January 4, 1997, after 27 years and 3 months of service. FOX usually worked a normal shift from 4:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., but frequently worked overtime until 6:30 p.m. some evenings. FOX worked many weekends. FOX received a call from First Name Unknown (FNU) JACKSON of the Bureau of Public Affairs, of the Secret Service in Washington, earlier in the day. FNU JACKSON inquired whether he was going to grant any more interviews and, after some kidding around, FOX replied that he was not. JACKSON advised him that as a result of the television interview he may get subpoenaed. FOX said that he had nothing to hide, and was willing to provide any information that did not affect the security of the President.

FOX first met MONICA LEWINSKY when he was on duty at the Control Point in the basement of the West Wing of the White House. LEWINSKY was wearing an "I" badge, indicating that she was a White House intern, and was accompanied by another young lady who was introduced as a friend from California. MONICA stated that she wanted to take her friend, who had a visitor's badge, upstairs for a limited tour of several rooms. FOX pointed out SUSAN LEVINE, of the Democratic National Committee, who was about to escort several persons from Arkansas on a private tour. LEVINE agreed to take MONICA's friend, and MONICA agreed to wait at the Control Point for her to return. A few minutes later the Vice President came downstairs and passed by, going across the
